Re: the 2026 conference, to be held on Saturday, January 31st. –

We have a new location and new time!

We have shifted the start time to afternoon and we are thrilled to have the special opportunity to hold the conference in the Dallas County Commissioners Courtroom in the Dallas County Municipal Building, which has recently been restored.

This year's conference theme is "Doing Business in Dallas."

For a full list of speakers and registration information, please visit our website.

Please help us get the word out by sharing this email with friends and colleagues who share a love of Dallas history.

We hope to see you at the conference.
